

Invitations Out For Wedding Of Capt. Jones and Harriot Howze

By OLIE P. LANSBURY

Invitations have been issued by the bride and groom for the wedding of Capt. Jones and Harriot Howze. The ceremony will take place at the Methodist Episcopal church at half past eight o'clock Wednesday evening, December 2.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Howze, of the 10th cavalry, U. S. army, which is to take place at the Methodist Episcopal church at half past eight o'clock Wednesday evening, December 2.

The wedding is to be a beautiful and elaborate affair with a reception and dance following at the officers club at Fort Bliss.

Several of the wedding attendants will come from a distance including Miss Anna Gray Hawkins, cousin of the bride who is to be maid of honor. Miss Hawkins is a daughter of Col. E. S. Hawkins of Fort Riley, Kan. She arrived in El Paso on Monday and will be seen by the bridegroom while on a visit to the Howze family. The bride is a daughter of Dr. J. E. Howze, of the 10th cavalry, U. S. army, which is to take place at the Methodist Episcopal church at half past eight o'clock Wednesday evening, December 2.

COUGHED FOR 2 YEARS ORDERED TO DENVER

Doctor said she couldn't get well in Illinois, but she did.

"I had a very bad cough for 2 years, all the time, day and night. I could sleep but little. I tried everything, but got no relief. Finally my doctor said he could do no more for me. What I had better go to Denver as I couldn't live in Illinois. Then I tried Mille Emulsion. From the very first, it helped me. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my cough left me entirely. I have gained in strength and flesh and am now in perfect health."—Mrs. Alice M. Humbley, 122 No. Pearl St., Galveston, Ill.

Build up your system and give it a chance to fight off disease. Mille Emulsion costs nothing to try and it has done the work for thousands of others.

Mille Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective tonic. It removes healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all the piles and phlegm. It gives the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Mille Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in ridding and repelling the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic ailments, such as tuberculosis and constipation are promptly relieved.

This is the only cod liver emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Mille Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 10c and $1.00 per bottle. The Mille Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Already the largest selling high-grade syrup in the world

BRER RABBIT flavor crowns the success of two Louisiana boys.

Looking back at that day, twenty-two years before, when, armed with boyish memories, they had started out to duplicate in deliciousness the sugar cane plantation sweets of their boyhood, Penick & Ford, now the biggest packers of sugar cane products in the world—decided on the final step.

They would give to the South an ideal syrup.

One by one their other hucious products had been perfected, had been approved by the discriminating South, and shipped to every state. Now they would make that syrup which would be worthy of the famous batter-cakes and hot breads of the South.

This syrup is now ready at your grocer's.

They have called it Brer Rabbit, in honor of the hero of the plantation stories of their boyhood. Already meeting with quick appreciation Brer Rabbit is the largest selling high-grade syrup in the world.

Order a can today. Inside its fragrant taste for yourself the famous Brer Rabbit flavor. There are two Brer Rabbit syrups. The straight pure juice of the sugar cane (blue label) and a milder syrup of modified sweetness (brown label). This latter syrup is especially put up for those who prefer a softening of the rich sweetness of old-fashioned plantation syrup. Enjoy the noted Brer Rabbit flavor tonight! Penick & Ford, Ltd., New Orleans.
